Why do I have to pay commissions?

Tor Vergata University of Rome, is obliged to comply with the provisions of Legislative Decree 18/10/2012, n. 179 and the directives from the Agency for Digital Italy (AGID) in which it is provided that the commissions associated with the payment of any tax due to a public administration are borne by the citizen. Tor Vergata University of Rome absolutely cannot take charge of payment fees. However, some Payment Service Provider (PSP) allow direct debiting of bank accounts at zero cost when an online payment is made through PagoPA.

In the PagoPA FAQ it is possible to read: when a payment service is provided, the payer is called to pay a commission to his PSP. Commissions for the payment management are arising by some service costs to guarantee a quality service: for example, the continuity of delivery 24/7, the execution times of transactions that must be very short, costs of international circuits in case of payment by credit card, security and anti-fraud services, reliability of the infrastructure, etc.
